Dear Mr. Wait:

That is like a breath of the past, to have your subscription with a notation recalling my sophomore poem "My Cigarette" and Fred Burton's very pretty musical setting thereof. I am lucky enough to have an unrumpled copy of that sheet music still.

I send you the two song books, and feel sure that you will find in them the charm which has so strongly appealed to me. I am now at work on the Second Book, to come out this Fall - - with fourteen more songs.

With all good wishes,

Always Sincerely Yours
